Important: Our Heavenly Father knows all our needs and desires before we ask for them, yet He encourages us to pray. Please therefore do not reveal any confidential information about the requirement for prayer, just a brief indication to help us pray. Please also take care how you identify the person for whom prayer is requested - in most cases just the Christian name is sufficient. The information you provide will be shared with other members of the Society of Mary so that they might intercede as requested.
